1. General Information about Traffic in Beijing

Beijing has an extensive public transportation network. Subway and City Rail with high speed trains running at intervals of 3 to 5 minutes are the fastest public transportation in the city. Public buses are the cheapest means of transportation which cover the entire city.

* The starting fare of public buses is 1 CNY in the city and 2 CNY in the suburb areas.

* Beijing Subway fares 2 CNY on different lines.

* In addition to the buses, subways and city light rails, the taxis are also available in Beijing. The cheapest price for a taxi ride is 10 yuan for the first 3 km distance and the price after 3-km ride is 2 CNY/km (5:00 AM-10:59 PM). The cheapest price for a taxi ride is 11 yuan and the price after the 3-km taxi ride is 2.4 CNY/km (11:00 PM-4:59 AM). Please remember to keep your taxi ticket in case that you forget any things on the taxi. The ticket is helpful to find the taxi drivers.
